

AN AUTUMN MUST-HAVE

With the monotony of modern lifestyle closing in from all sides, it is quite refreshing to break the everyday hustles by introducing few touches of retro accessories to your home. Mixing vintage finds with modern furniture creates an eclectic, worldly and uniquely personal look. If you are not sure if you want to take the full plunge into a retro-inspired décor or if you would prefer to keep it subtle, you can add few accessories throughout your home. Either way it is a perfect way to spice up your autumn home.

INTRODUCING THE BLOOMINGVILLE DECO GLOBE

Nothing says retro like high contrast colors and textiles. The 1970s were a wonderful era of lava lamps, high voltage prints in bold and dynamic shapes and orange, green, purple, brown and yellow were favorites among home and fashion designers alike.

The new deco globe from Bloomingville combines all golden retro trends in one unique piece. It is handmade and therefore no item is alike.

The retro glaze is beautiful combined with white or black basics leaving endless of styling possibilities for each home. Mix it with vases and candlesticks of same shades of glazes and rustic ceramics for a complete autumn look. Leave it standing alone on your dining or coffee table for a simple yet powerful decoration.

The deco globe is an absolute autumn must-have. It is simple, yet expressive. It is small in size, yet grand in appearance. It is the perfect autumn statement piece.
